

North Jakarta International School

THE THREE C's

CARING

The NJIS Family

Cooperation – respect and sharing

Character Development – positive attitude and problem solving

Community – relationships and responsibility

CURRICULUM

What and How you Learn

Content – what we teach

Context – how we teach

Consistency – when and where we teach

COMMUNICATION

Sharing Information

Contact with Parents – no surprises

Conferencing with Students – clear expectations and high standards

Collegiality – teamwork

North Jakarta International School

Where Learning Becomes A Lifelong Skill!

Expected Student Learning Results

NJIS educates students to become:

Effective Communicators who...

- speak, read, write, and listen effectively.
- communicate effectively for a variety of purposes.
- express ideas, emotions, and personal experiences clearly and creatively using a range of media
- listen critically with understanding.

Literate Individuals who...

- read fluently with comprehension for a variety of purposes.
- develop a strong foundation in all academic disciplines.
- access, analyze, evaluate and present information using diverse resources.

Critical Thinkers and Problem Solvers who...

- apply creativity and persistence in defining problems and developing strategies to solve them.
- demonstrate flexibility in thinking.
- develop awareness of their own thinking.
- integrate learning and apply it to authentic situations.

Self-Directed, Productive Learners who...

- realize their intellectual, artistic, social, and physical potentials.
- independently pursue learning.
- set, achieve, and reflect on personal and collective goals.

Constructive Community Members who...

- develop a value system beneficial to building effective relationships guided by truth, honesty, fairness, equality, and integrity.
- work collaboratively and effectively with others.
- create an awareness and understanding of the host culture and other cultures.
- contribute their time, energy, and talents to improve the quality of life in our families, schools, communities, nations, and world.

FEBRUARY 22, 2005